Youth Services System, Inc. CEO Retires; Successor in Place

WHEELING, W.Va — Local non-profit organization Youth Services System, Inc. (YSS) announces that long-time Chief Executive Officer John Moses retired on June 30th, 2022 after 43 years of service.

Over the past two years, the Board of Directors, in conjunction with John Moses, have overseen the process of putting a qualified successor in place. YSS is pleased to name Tammy Kruse as our next CEO. Kruse has been with the organization for over 13 years, most recently as President.

YSS will continue to follow our Mission: to create better futures for children, families and our community.

Please join us in thanking John Moses for a lifetime of service to bettering the lives of the youth and unsheltered in our community.

About Youth Services System, Inc.:

Youth Services System, Inc. 's mission is "to create better futures for children, families and our community." YSS is committed to responding to the complex needs of youth at serious risk. Since 1974, Youth Services System, Inc. has reached thousands of youth and their families with our shelter, residential, community-based and professional services. Together with youth and their families, we work to improve their physical and emotional well-being, to address the debilitating effects of abuse, substance use, and trauma, and to build the skills and connections they need to be successful. Accredited by CARF International, YSS is supported by our volunteer Board of Directors, dedicated staff and faithful community, allowing us to make a measurable impact in the lives of youth.
